

Mission 21 lights beacons of hope in 20 countries in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. It does so based on the gospel and in collaboration with 70 partner organisations. In approximately 100 projects, it focuses on the reduction of poverty, education, health and healthcare, the promotion of peace, and the advancement of women. Mission 21 has the status of a charitable organisation. The organisation is supported by the Federation of Swiss Protestant Churches (SEK) and the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC).

As of April 1, 2018 we are looking for a

Advocacy Program Officer (50 - 60%)

Tasks

- Preparation and support of the implementation of international advocacy workshops
- Accompaniment of the follow-up activities and the building up of platforms for multiplication of advocacy and Gender Mainstreaming lines in each continent
- Monitoring, administrative supervision and reporting of Gender Mainstreaming and advocacy line in development programs
- Strengthening the networks of partner organisations and churches of Mission 21
- Coordination of specific advocacy actions and campaigns (e.g. 16 days activism against gbv)
- Budget follow-up, financial reporting of the advocacy line

Requirements

- Studies in theology, political sciences, anthropology or sociology
- Independent worker, ability to set priorities, experience in administrative work and organizing events
- Genuine interest in and commitment to Women's Human Rights
- Fluent written and spoken German and English; Spanish, French or Indonesian are an asset
- Field-experience in Africa, Asia or Latin America is an asset

What can you expect

- A thematically demanding and humanly versatile task in an international environment
- Modern employment conditions, excellent social benefits, attractive work place in Basel

Contact

Please send your application until 11.02.2018 to bewerbung@mission-21.org, Ms Myriam Pellet, Human Resources, Mission 21, Missionsstrasse 21, CH-4009 Basel, www.mission-21.org. Informal inquiries are welcome and should be made by email to josefina.hurtado@mission-21.org.